INNOVATION

For us, Research & Development is one of the most important factors for our company's future success. It is our untiring effort to explore and unlock the vast potential that nature has to offer that makes us a global leader in herbal feed additives.

TODAY'S PROBLEM

Modern poultry production is a highly sophisticated process. Its success depends strongly on adequate housing management and proper feeding regimes. However, there are a lot of severe infection cases and other illnesses which cause weakness, death and growth problems.

OUR SOLUTION

CHICKEN FORTE® is a herbal feed supplement for poultry based on plant and spices extracts. The herbal extracts contain various organic substances; such as, tannins, saponins, polyphenols, sterols and other active ingredients that enhances nutrient absorption, supports overall animal health status and boosts the immune system in poultry, thus leading to:

- Increasing growth rate in broilers
- Decrease in mortality
- Decreased chance of diseases infection
- Decrease in FCR (feed conversion ratio)
- Increase in net weight of meat compared to live chicken
